

Supplemental Figure 3. Fitness differences for mutants with COG classifications that function in transport, catabolism, amphibolism (both catabolism and anabolism), or anabolism. Open points are significant fitness changes in multi-bacterial communities, closed points are the mean of significant fitness differences with 95% confidence intervals. Significant differences in mean fitness changes are indicated by red letters.